ECO TOURISM DEVELOPMENT IN SRI LANKA

14th June 2010

Ravi de Silva
Consultant
Nature and Culture as it is, benefitting the local communities
Use of conserved environment – Recreation and Education
Dissemination of information
Community participation – Forming CBOs
Sustainable development and socio-economic approach
Promoting increasing scope and diversity of environmental concerns
Biodiversity conservation
CBOs to the front
Eco tourism as a tool for conservation
Income of local communities
Rights and concerns of local communities
Indigenous economics
Preservation of ancient cultures
Eco-techniques and eco-friendly designs
Traditional technologies
Reseaching the community perception
Studying the social leadership patterns
Proactive social approach
Use of water and waste water
Solid waste
Access and transport
THANK YOU!

Ravi de Silva
Consultant